Cameron People Urged to Exhibit Christmas Spirit

With only a few more days to wait before the arrival of Christmas and for the visit of the good old Saint Nicholas, the children of Cameron and the whole world are counting the hours and even the minutes. If they aren't, they must be sick or abnormal. Already, lists have been made, letters written to Santa Claus and, the long wait for the time to come being borne impatiently.

While Christmas is primarily a children's holiday, the grownups of Cameron will have a great part in making it a real success. The very foundation of the observance of Christmas is giving and without this there would be no Christmas.

To some people Christmas giving has come to mean an "exchange of gifts" rather than any unselfish giving. We give to those from whom we expect to receive and give in proportion to what we do receive. By doing so, we lose the real meaning of the observance and the joy we might receive.

Wouldn't it be a fine thing this Christmas if every citizen of Cameron would accept the responsibility of giving something to someone less fortunate than himself and thus help to lighten that person's load a little? There are so many people around us who, though no fault of their own, are having such a struggle for existence that even a little would help so much.

We read in the newspapers of the larger cities where the welfare associations have prepared a list of the neediest cases that have come to their attention and help is solicited for these. Money and assistance is given by rich and poor alike to help those unfortunates.

While we may not do this in Cameron, still all of us know of some child, some man or woman who, unless some outside aid is received, will have a rather barren, cheerless Christmas. Surely, we couldn't enjoy our Christmas as much if we failed to share our much or little with others.

Let's make this an unselfish Christmas, remembering the words of Him whose birthday we are observing when He said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Henderson
Celebrate Golden Wedding

By DELPHYA SCOTT

The stately colonial home of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Henderson was the scene of one of the largest social gatherings in the history of Cameron Monday evening, December 10th when friends gathered to join in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Friends from over the state and out of state received beautiful golden invitations, the front of which bore a picture of the home, which has been noted for its Southern hospitality; where many delightful gatherings have made social history for Cameron; where cheerful happy hospitality has ever been characteristics of host and hostess. On inner page of folder were the names of the former bride and bridegroom, "Thomas Stalworth Henderson—

Changes Office

Though Emory Camp, a member of the expiring 43rd Legislature, was an active supporter of James V. Alfred, Governor Ferguson has appointed him district attorney of Milam county in advance of his scheduled taking of office Jan. 1. He fills a vacancy created by the death of the incumbent, S. M. Burns, and replaced Burns on the ticket a short time before the general election. (Texas News Photos.)

SUSPENDED SENTENCE
GIVEN FOR MURDER

Harry Rogers was given a suspended sentence for murder in connection with the killing of Garnet Beardon in Milam County in 1933. Both were Rogers residents.

Rogers was convicted of the murder but the jury gave a suspended sentence. He was formerly convicted and given two years.

This is the second suspended sentence given in a murder case in this county in recent months, the other apology being to Tom Anglin, slayer of his brother.

Despite able prosecution with Criminal District Attorney Emory B. Camp assisted by his father, E. A. Camp, the jury disagreed with the state and declined to give punishment though found him guilty. Jack Lewis, former Criminal District Attorney and DeWitt Bowmer of Temple, defended Rogers.

His Career Ends

Judge W. O. Huggins, publisher of the Houston Chronicle and former chairman of the Texas State Democratic Executive committee, died unexpectedly last week, due to a heart attack. Judge Huggins was vitally interested in good roads and foreign affairs occupied a prominent place in his interests.

THIRD TIGER CLAW OF SEASON FATAL

In a farewell to the Gridiron packed with thrills that kept thousands who braved freezing north winds, on their feet throughout the Yoemen for 1934 lost the bi-district classic to Smithville Tigers 14 to 6 here Friday night.

For the third time in their conference schedule this year the Yoemen were torn by Tiger talons and suffered their most severe defeat.

It is the story so often true of America's great scholastic sport, the best team faltering at the threshold of victory to be overcome and routed by a superior foe of the hour.

From out that frozen night memories of gallant play will endear to the heart of Yoe fandom for all time to come, the names of Captain Billie Gillis, leading his maroon squad in a masterful but futile onslaught; Leonard Blaylock, the titan-haired demon of defense and all conference center; Jimmy (Hickory Lad) Stanislav, the greatest guard who ever flashed the colors of Yoe High, and the Maroon candidate for all-American, whose 136 pounds of dynamic play stopped the Tigers time and time again; Lad Hrozek, spectacular half back running with the speed of the wind; Clint Breeding, driving in terrific maneuvers, maroon wedges into the Tiger wall; Trent Newton, calling the plays and flashing off tackle to establish his right to be numbered among the great maroon quarterbacks of all time. These and their fellow players justified the full measure of Yoemen's support.

Running counter to this maroon display was the best football aggregation seen in action in 1934 on Yoeman field. The Smithville Tigers, under the prideful eyes of Coach Steitler, a Dana Bible pupil, led by the magnificent charging fullback, Buck Carver, won an easy victory. Co-starring with Carver was Tiny Baggett whose uncanny generalship produced a strategy that was formidable and devastating. The unerring toe of Duke Konkel, a portside-kicker, sent the ball spinning through the uprights or out of bounds deep in the maroon territory as the case demanded.

The Tigers lost no time in placing their victory beyond doubt. Kicking to Cameron Newton received the ball and ran it to his 30 yard line. Blaylock then passed to Gillis from center who made 14 yards and a first down in the maroon first play of the game. The Tiger wall was impregnable and Newton was forced to kick. Tiny Baggett took the ball on his 41 yard line and did not stop until he had made two successive first downs deep in Cameron's territory. There he was finally stopped by the Hickory Lad. On the next play Duke Kunkel passed to Baggett and then the Tiger quarterback got 15 yards, placing the ball on Cameron's six-inch line. Buck Carver made a touchdown.

Early in the third quarter the charging Tiger wall blocked Newton's kick and got the ball on Cameron's 30 yard line. Then it was that Buck Carver made his greatest gain of the night and scored a touchdown.

A brilliant passing attack from Breeding to Hrozek and to Newton swept down the field. The ball was on Smithville's 32 yard line when Captain Gillis, following a short pass Breeding to Newton gained 8 yards, took the ball and swept through the Tiger line for the Yoemen lone touchdown of the game. A bad pass from center prevented Erms from kicking goal.

The game ended after two more serious threats by the Tigers and a final thrust for two first downs by the brilliant Breeding and the fleet Lad Hrozek.

The following is a play by play re-

YOEMEN FETED HERE
AT ANNUAL BANQUET

Sweaters for the Yoemen of 1934 were awarded Tuesday night at a banquet in Ada Henderson school.

Included in the invited guests for the honors of the athletic department were members of the pep squad, high school band, board of trustees and others.

The banquet to honor the Yoemen was also one to honor Coach Carroll Wood. Yoemen won the district conference for the first time this year.

Jack Chevigny of the Texas Longhorns, a graduate under the immortal Knute Rockne of Notre Dame, was the principal speaker.

The banquet table seated about 300. Numerous telegrams of congratulations were received from business men. O. C. Acroy, minister at the Presbyterian church was toastmaster.

Citizens of Cameron, through the Athletic Council, presented to Coach Wood a six piece set of sterling silver knives, forks, tea spoons, and table spoons. The football team presented a trophy.

Fur House Opens
In City; Better
Prices to Trappers

A fur house has been opened in Santa Fe Town in Cameron and better prices are now available to trappers for pelts, it was announced by W. O. Ellis of the firm.

The fur house is located in the building across from the Mondrik grocery. Mr. Ellis is a member of the firm of Bales & Ellis, comes to Cameron from Belton. This is a branch of one of the oldest fur buying firms in Texas. For many years they have been operating in Bell county.

Mr. Ellis says prices will be paid trappers as high as can be obtained anywhere in the eastern markets. Due to lack of stimulation the fur industry in Milam county has not been a flourishing trade. Now that market facilities are at hand encouragement is given trappers.

Mr. Ellis brings to the city a much needed advantage. He is a locksmith and does key work for safe and vaults. Already many have sought his services. He has spent his life in Texas and is an interesting talker. He has at times collected Indian flint work.

Coleman Furniture

Prices are quoted and buyers will be interested in the announcement carried in the columns of the Herald this week.

Last of Buckholts Bank Robbers Accounted for In Black Thompson Death

When Irving (Blackie) Thompson, Texas bad man, was slain by officers at Amarillo Monday, the last member of the trio who robbed the Buckholts State Bank, had finally succumbed to justice.

Whitey Walker was slain in an attempt to leave the walls at Huntsville at the time Thompson, Ray Hamilton and Joe Palmer escaped from the death house. Roy Johnson, the other member of the trio now living is in prison at Huntsville.

Thompson, Walker and Johnson were under indictment in Milam county for the robbery of the Buckholts bank in October of 1933.

AMARILLO. — Irvin (Blackie) Thompson, condemned fugitive criminal who escaped electrocution in a spectacular break from the Texas penitentiary's death row last July, was shot to death by a posse of nine officers in a gun fight on a highway 12 miles east of here to night.

Tipped that a bank robbery was planned here, three carloads of officers jumped the notorious Oklahoma and Texas bank robber and slayer on the outskirts of the city. Thompson, alone, fled out U. S. highway 66 and was halted only by a chance shot at 300 yards that ripped into a tire on his machine and brought him to a halt.

Fires At Officers

Thompson blazed away at the officers stationed at strategic angles, but machine gun, rifle and pistol fire perforated his body. None of the officers were injured but bullets splattered against their automobiles.

The desperado's right leg was smashed by bullets and his left arm was dangling at the wrist. A bullet bore through his head over the left eye.

Was Heavily Armed

Two shotguns, a pistol, rifle, a pinch bar, cold chisel, steel punches, a syphoning hose, cotton picker's sack, pair of overalls, an alarm clock and a cap were found in the fugitive's car. Under his right arm was a satchel, filled with various kinds of ammunition.

Thompson's car bore Oklahoma license plates number 359A-698.

Officers who participated in the slaying were Sheriff Bill Adams and Deputies Roy Brewer and Ivy Wilkinson; chief of police W. R. McDowell, Chief of Detectives Clark Cain and Police Officers Buster McGough, Sid Harper, Brandy Lee and Marshall Turner. Deputy Brewer's shot punctured the tire.

Officers Car Hit

Officers refused to reveal the source of their tip. The bank robbery was scheduled for yesterday, according to the police informant, but all patrol cars remained on the look out tonight.

The officers' cars were struck by bullets.

The relentless hunt for Thompson was opened yesterday morning when officers got rumors of a proposed plot to rob a bank here. No attempt was made to rob the bank.

REAL SEA SEPPENT FOUND IN CANADA

Prince Rupert, B. C.—The carcass of a strange creature, about thirty feet long with a skin like sandpaper, partly covered with hair and partly by spines and possessing a head resembling that of a horse, was recently found by a fisherman on Henry Island.

The monster apparently confirms popular reports of a "sea serpent" and it is said to resemble no known species of marine life. At Victoria, museum authorities expressed the opinion that it might be a survivor of a northern sea cow, believed extinct more than 150 years.

Who Knows Less About More Things Than Any Man on Earth Explains: How To Write A Telegram

(By Herbert Nachman)

Writing a telegram so that it comes out in the right number of words the very first time, is always a physical impossibility. Still, it probably can be done.

The LeRong Self-Educational Telegram Writing Portfolio, just off the wire, will give you all the necessary details.

Even if it don't work.

Go to your nearest telegraph office and ask for a new pad of telegraph blanks.

Of course they may not last long enough for you to complete the message, but the telegraph company has plenty more.

Now, the very first thing to do is to practice penmanship exercises. Concentrate deeply and start drawing circles, squares, images and what-not.

After you have completely covered one sheet, start on a new one.

Then chew the eraser off the pencil.

Finally, write down, "Mr. John Smith, Podunk, U. S. A."—and begin your message.

Suppose for instance, you are instructing your salesman to cut down expenses unless he can produce some business.

Your first draft is about like this: STOP THROWING AWAY MONEY STOP NO BUSINESS YET FROM YOU STOP WHO DO YOU THINK WE ARE STOP JOHN ROCKEBILT STOP SEND US SOME ORDERS STOP OR ELSE

COME IN STOP WE MEAN IT STOP NO BUSINESS NO CASH STOP

Obviously, you can't send all those words, so you start all over. After an hour, you've boiled it down like this:

STOP THROWING MONEY STOP NO BUSINESS STOP MUST STOP DO YOU THINK STOP ELSE COME HOME STOP NO BUSINESS STOP

By this time you know he has the idea, and he should be able to fill in between the lines, so the final telegram is very simple, after all. You finally cut it down to read:

STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP STOP

And that's all there is to it.

Get your message down—eliminate all useless words.

And stop!

RAILROADS GAIN

Washington, D. C.—Railroads did more to regain lost passenger and freight traffic in the last year than in any similar period during the last decade. Stream-lined trains, air-conditioned coaches and reduced fares boosted passenger traffic and store-door pick-up and delivery service, with overnight freights on passenger schedules, regained much freight.

Together they came to Texas and settled at Burlington. Neither had ever seen cotton grow. Today they own about eleven hundred acres of fine land, have reared a family of children, one of whom, a son, resides in Chicago and is engaged in the practice of law. Although his subscription does not expire this year, he appreciates this newspaper to the extent that he has paid until 1936. The publisher is glad to have Mr. Kohring one among the great family of readers. Except for a low acreage yield allowance which was unjust to his production record, he declared he had profited by the Bankhead Cotton Law. He will vote Friday to continue the law and believes that it has done much to equalize production and demand and that in a large measure it has saved the cotton farmer in the South.

Brogdon Attends Southwestern Life Meet In Fort Worth

Fort Worth.—Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brogdon of Cameron are in Fort Worth today attending the thirty-first annual convention of the Southwestern Life Insurance Company.

More than 500 representatives from all parts of Texas are here for this convention, which is the largest insurance event of its kind ever held in the State. Southwestern Life agents earn the right to attend these meetings by writing a certain volume of business during the year, and as a number of qualified agents is about twenty per cent greater than in 1933, a larger volume of business is indicated for 1934.

"Now I'm the Picture of Health," Says Lady After Taking CARDUI

Here is how Cardui helped an Alabama lady. . . . "I suffered from pains in my back and sides," writes Mrs. A. G. Gray, of Cusseta, Ala. "I was so thin and weak, I read of Cardui and decided to take it. I noticed at once it was helping me. I kept taking Cardui until I had finished five bottles. I gained. My health was much better. Now I am the picture of health. My color is good and my weight increased." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.

VANISHED ISLAND RISES
IN BAY

Washington.—A long vanished island has reappeared on the south eastern coast of Trinidad, according to a report from American Consulate. Previously, in 1911, the island lifted its head in Erin Bay and vanished a few years later. Recently, as a result of volcanic action, a new beach, about 800 feet long, was formed by subterranean upheavals. Some geologists believe that the origin is not volcanic, but due to the slipping of a "fault" in the formation of the crust of the earth.

Golden Anniversary

the cordiality typical of the Henderson home. Mrs. Boyd Wells of Austin, Mrs. Cecil Culpepper, Mrs. Hamilton Bonnet, of Evanston, Illinois, Mrs. Earnest Beard of Hillsboro, John B. Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Red of Houston, and the delightful host and hostess dispensed hospitality to their many guests who came to wish for them many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Henderson was elegantly attired in an off white lace dress, the gift of her children. As a bride of 50 years ago she wore a smart gown of sapphire blue chiffon velvet.

Guests were invited into the spacious dining room which was attractively decorated with the chosen flowers of yellow and pink intermingled with greenery. The table was laid with a beautiful imported cover and decorated with choice fern fronds. Resting in the center of the table was a large handsome wedding cake that was embossed with lilies of the valley, sweetheart buds in dainty pink and cream, with bridal flowers. Mirrored lakes extending from both sides, were graced with pretty white swans and birds of the forest in miniature style. Mrs. John B. Henderson presiding over the hospitalities of the dining room, where cake, coffee and tea were served from silver trays. Mints in scroll design in golden color were passed. Dainty yellow chrysanthemums of small design were given as favors.

Passing from the dining room to the west parlor, guests were invited to register in the bride's book, a handsome hand-painted cover adorning same. Miss Katherine Henderson of Austin, a niece of the host, had charge of the book.

Judge Henderson, youngest of seven children of Thomas S. and Harriett (Red) Henderson, was born in Washington on the Brazos. His parents were natives of South Carolina, and came to Texas in the early pioneer days and bore an honorable share in the making of Texas during the pioneer period. The father was a successful planter and influential citizen. Judge Henderson attended schools of his native country and entered Baylor University, Waco, where he graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Arts with the honors of his class. In preparation for his chosen profession, the practice of law, he entered St. Louis School of Law at Saint Louis, Missouri, where he studied until he completed his law course, and immediately came to Cameron. Mr. Henderson has never been an office seeker. While a minor by law, his disabilities were removed that he might accept the office tendered him as County Attorney before he was 20 years old, and later was District Attorney and subsequently was a member of the State Legislature, filling these offices in a manner that reflected credit and honor upon himself and his country. He has served his country as a true Democrat. He was a member of the Board of Regents of State University for 16 years and Chairman of the board for more than ten years.

Mrs. Henderson was born in Caddo Parish, Louisiana and when a child came to Marshall, Texas, with her mother. She attended public school there and subsequently graduated from the Marshall Institute, a prominent school at that place, and was married at Marshall December 10, 1884. Mrs. Henderson is a woman of superior culture and refinement and has always taken a prominent part in all social and religious affairs. She is of an old and prominent family of Louisiana. She has membership in several clubs being a prominent member of the D. A. R. Chapter here and has always taken a leading part in matters that improved social, civic and religious conditions and has made a place in the hearts of many friends in and around Cameron the past half century, where she and her husband have dispensed hospitality in true Southern style and have seen Cameron grow amazingly since their residence, and in no small degree have contributed to its wonderful growth and development.

Mr. and Mrs. Henderson have reared an interesting family. Tom S. Henderson, Jr., is a well known attorney at law at Corpus Christi, a member of the law firm of Boone-Henderson-Boone & Davis. Eleanor—Mrs. Boyd Wells of Austin; Mary Lake—Mrs. John Cecil Culpepper of Cameron; John B. Henderson of Cameron; Harriett—Mrs. Hamilton Bonnet of Evanston, Illinois; Agnes—Mrs. Ernest Beard of Hillsboro. There are seven grand children, Peter and Tom Wells, students of State University, and John Wells, student in high school at Austin; Douglas and Tom Beard, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Beard; Betty and Eleanor Bonnet, children of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bonnet, all of whom were present at the Golden Wedding. One of the special interests was that the wedding anniversary of two of Mr. and Mrs. Henderson's daughters falling on the same date, December 10th being the 20th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Wells, and the eighth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Bonnet; the birthday of a grandson, John B. Henderson, Jr., was one year old on the 10th.

Those in the house party were: Miss Winnie Henderson, Miss Katherine Henderson, Austin; Mr. Boyd Wells, and sons, Peter, Tom and John, Austin; Messrs. Cecil Culpepper, Hamilton Bonnet, Ernest Beard, Mrs. John B. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Law Henderson, Miss Katherine Henderson, Bryan; Mrs. Mary C. Henderson, Mrs. Mary C. Carr, Miss Georgia Carr, San Antonio, Mrs. Wm. Foster, Mrs. Louis Stephens, Waco; Mrs. S. M. Burns, Sr.

Out of town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Red, Mr. and Mrs. George Hefley, Houston; Miss Katherine Henderson, Dr. H. Y. Benedict, Judge J. L. Peeler, Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Brogan, Mrs. Ben H. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gracy, Mrs. David Gracy, Mr. and Mrs. Ben P. Atkinson, Mrs. Fannie K. Clark, Henry D. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Foster, Mrs. Louise Stephens, Mrs. S. P. McLendon, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Atkinson, Miss Jane Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Rogers, Dr. and Mrs. H.

Clay Watson, Mrs. W. T. Hefley, Mrs. J. Lee Davis, Waco; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Beard, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Field, Mr. Scott Field, Calvert; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ball of Huntsville, Mrs. W. B. Thomas, Miss Margaret Thomas, Rogers; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Franklin, Goose Creek; Mrs. Lillie J. Myer, Mrs. A. D. Potts, Belton; Mrs. Ben Rogers, Independence; Mrs. Arthur P. Duggan, Littlefield; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Winkelman, Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. George Walling, Mrs. Ed Palm, Miss Martha Palm, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Smilie, Austin; Mrs. George H. Carter, Senator Tom Connally, Marlin; Mrs. Leonard Isaacs, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cooke, Miss Florence Dunington, Dr. and Mrs. I. P. Sessions, Rockdale; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Atkinson, Maysfield; Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Adams, Dallas; Dr. Robert F. Miller, Gay Hill; Mrs. Edge, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Coleman, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Henderson, Miss Katherine Henderson, Bryan; Mrs. J. M. Woodson, Dr. Burbank Woodson, Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Roddy, Temple; Miss Marion Cameron, Rochester, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Love, Franklin; Mrs. Benit Tyson, Miles, Ill.

The guests enjoyed viewing the many handsome gifts presented to Mr. and Mrs. Henderson, and also looking over the attractive souvenirs gathered by their children when abroad at different times.

NADITA

By Grace Moin

Nadita is the most touching book I have ever read. It is the story of a little Mexican girl, who, until near the last, is unidentified. She has many adventures, such as three changes of abode, close calls with robbers and rewards for stolen loot which she finds. She also is kidnapped when she is enticed only a few feet away and is clapped into a tight-closed, moving wagon. In the end she turns out not to be just "Nadita" (Little Nothing) but Maria Theresa Rosita Montana de la Espada, granddaughter of a wealthy Castilian. When I had finished reading the book I felt a little sad, for, as Nadita always said, "The only thing I do not like about a good story is that it does not go on and on forever."

Jimmy Quiz, Office Boy

Jimmy Quiz, Office Boy, is a very interesting book, written by Harold S. Lathrop, author of Marty Lends a Hand, Under Orders, and many other good books.

Jimmy Quiz lives in New York City. He has to quit school and go to work because his father is dead and he has to take care of his mother. He gets a job in Remington's Publishing Company, which suits him very well because he likes books. He has many adventures while looking for his chum, Fred who has disappeared.

I think all boys and girls too would like this book.

DIANE LUCKETT,
Sixth Grade.

Lone Bull's Mistake

I haven't ever read any other books by James Willard Schultz, but I am sure his book, Lone Bull's Mistake, is one of his best. I like it because it has very thrilling and dangerous events in it.

It is about a thick-headed Indian of the Pikini tribe who disobeyed the hunting laws and quit his tribe because he was whipped for it. He was the best warrior in that certain tribe and because he was so proud and would not borrow food from his relatives; he thought he should not be punished, but the people felt otherwise.

He, his wife, and his two children (a boy and a girl) encountered many adventures.

The incident that I liked most was where Lone Bull's son was up in a tree trying to dream his hunting medicine when he heard some Indians plotting to raid the fort in which his family and friends were staying. After the plotters had left their hiding place, Lone Bull's son climbed down from the tree and made his way to the fort and warned his friends in time to save the fort.

ESCAPES DEATH; COLLAPSES

SCIENCE CHANGING
"GIRL-BOY" TO MAN

Dwarf Child Will Never Be Physically Fit.

Kittanning, Pa.—There is a long, uphill struggle ahead of Clara—now renamed Clarence—Schreckengost, the twenty-year-old dwarf whom surgeons are changing into a normal man.

The new science of the ductless gland treatments is being used with success, it was learned, and the physicians are confident that the "girl-man" will win the fight.

A physician familiar with the case said:

"Clarence will never be completely normal. We believe, however, that gradually 'he' will improve physically. We have not changed his sex—such a thing is impossible. All we have done is to encourage the development of the patient's real sex."

The child is only 51 inches tall and unable to read or write, and has six normal brothers and sisters.

Cases Not Rare.

Changes from one sex to another, as in the case of Clara Schreckengost, are far from being rare, although seldom heard about outside of medical circles.

Modern medical science has discovered that the change from one sex to another is the result of strange variations in the embryo or in imbalance in the ductless glands.

In such glands hormones are produced. They are responsible for the secondary sex characteristics, the masculine voice and beard of men, for instance.

If something goes wrong among the endocrines, a girl may grow more like a boy, and vice versa. This accounts for bearded women of the side shows and other like freaks.

For twenty years Mrs. Lettie Schreckengost has guarded her secret, even from her husband, Clark Schreckengost, a silent moody man of this Pennsylvania backwoods farming country.

"Better Off Dead."

And neither did Mrs. Schreckengost say anything when their family physician, kindly Dr. George S. Morrow, now dead, laid in her arms the malformed little creature who was to be named Clarence.

The ancient Greeks had a word for it, and a myth, to explain these thwarted children of Hermes and Aphrodite in whom the sexes were fused in a mystic union.

But to the country practitioner of two decades ago the Schreckengost offspring was a biological quirk and better off dead, according to the mother.

"He said that it would be more kindly to put it aside and let it die," Mrs. Schreckengost said.

"The doctor told me," she said, "that it might be either a girl or a boy, and asked me how I would dress it. I said I would dress it like a girl."

"He said I ought to call it by some name that would fit either a girl or a boy, like Francis, or Frances. So I said I would name it Claire and if it developed like a boy, I would leave off the E."

And though it was no secret in this rural neighborhood that Claire was somehow different, a girl she remained, in habits and dress, until the first of a series of remarkable operations in the West Penn hospital at Pittsburgh this summer disclosed the fact that the E could, with propriety, be deleted from her name; that Claire was of masculine persuasion.

Lost People of Guinea
Plateau to Stay Nude

London.—The newly discovered race on the New Guinea plateau is to remain nudist.

That is as far as the missionaries are concerned, for an expedition bearing civilization to a newly discovered race of people living in complete isolation from the rest of the world on a plateau in New Guinea, is excluding clothes from among its gifts.

Rev. V. H. Sherwin of Gosport, who has left home to take religious and medical comforts to the 200,000 inhabitants of the new territory, expressed himself strongly on the point.

"One of our policies is to fight against clothing natives. The big mistake western civilization has made is to put natives into clothes."

"These people ordinarily have a high standard of morality, walking about often naked, and are not possessed by the sexual exaggerations that we have in civilization."

"Moreover, in humid heat the more the body is exposed the better from the medical point of view."

Italy Will Taste Its Wines From Touring Van

Rome.—Some thousands of Italians will have their palates wooed with the finest wines of this country when the government sets about its fall campaign to make Italy more "wine conscious."

In order to put a real kick into its wine-boosting efforts the government has ordered the construction of a motor truck equipped with the most up-to-date refrigerators and tasting booths, which will tour the country giving the Italians in the street a first-hand acquaintance with his native wines. The truck will be labeled with the slogan, "Drink More Wine."

The most exquisite examples of Italian wines will be carried in the truck. This propaganda tour is being organized jointly by the ministries of interior and agriculture.

Black-Draught Brings Refreshing Relief of Constipation Troubles

Constipation produces many disagreeable sensations, several of which are mentioned by Mr. T. E. Stith, of Boonville, Ind., who writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught many years when needed for biliousness and other minor ills when a laxative was needed. I have a tight feeling in my chest when I get bilious. I get dizzy and feel very tired, just don't feel like doing my work. After taking Black-Draught, I feel much better. This is why I continue to use it when needed." Thedford's Black-Draught is a good, purely vegetable laxative, obtainable for 25¢ a package.

Texas Legislators Shout Act.

Latest figures indicate that fatalities from street and highway accidents will exceed 36,000 this year. This would top the all-time high in deaths from automobile accidents, 33,000 in 1931.

The figures are rather discouraging to those who imagined that improved highways and better automobiles would mean greater safety to pedestrians and the riding public. While higher speeds are in vogue one can hardly imagine that the excessive death toll is altogether explained by the single factor of so many miles-per-hour.

Statistics by the Travelers Insurance Company show that 48 per cent of all persons killed in these accidents have been pedestrians. Of the drivers involved in the 600,000 accidents reported there has been an increase of almost 24 per cent in the number who were declared intoxicated but the pedestrians involved showed an increase of 55 per cent. This undoubtedly indicates that alcohol has something to do with the increasing number of fatalities and injuries, regardless of what individuals may think.

Along this line let us call your attention to a survey of Maryland, made by the Maryland Casualty Company which shows that 10 per cent of drivers cause 60 per cent of accidents. This indicates that drastic revocation of licenses to drive would tend to eliminate this dangerous group, which includes reckless and unfit drivers, as well as those with physical defects.

Henry Edward Warner, of Baltimore, thinks that we ought to start over in the matter of licenses by requiring examinations under new rules, which would require "medical" certificate of fitness, assurance of sobriety and evidence of maturity to eliminate collegiate types and just plain fools." He cites the case of a young man, "subject of epileptic fits," who is licensed to drive a machine that travels up to 80 miles an hour and he rightfully pronounces it as "potential murder" to let him drive.

The problem affects the people of Milam County and Texas as much as those other sections. It can be solved, so far as we are concerned, by appropriate state action, which will cold-bloodedly and unsympathetically weed out the dangerous drivers. The legislators of Texas might set an example to the rest of the United States by taking prompt steps to save the lives of our own people.

Buy Christmas Seals.

The annual sale of Christmas seals for the purpose of raising funds to combat tuberculosis will engage the attention of the public spirited people of Milam County.

While it is not our providence to tell others what to do with their money, it is a pleasure to call your attention to this effort and to ask your consideration of its work. You can participate in a great undertaking by purchasing seals or bonds and thus make a helpful contribution to relieve human suffering.

Physical Education Is Vital.

Physical education is beginning to receive greater attention in the public schools and leading educators go so far as to say that the health of school children should be placed on a par with their mental development.

The emphasis is not misplaced.

While the schools of Milam county have shown signs of realizing the vital importance of proper physical development for the pupils the surface has not been scratched, not cultivated, and there exists vast room for a more comprehensive program.

The present concept of physical education goes much further than producing athletes and embraces all means of building healthy bodies and healthy minds. It is intended to offer supervised athletic opportunities to every boy and girl in the school system by which they will be encouraged to participate in games and acquire the full benefits that flow from competitive sports.

$150,000 Becomes $50

Times have changed and values with them.

The other day in a metropolitan city there was auctioned off a collection of stocks, bonds and securities once owned by a gentleman now behind the bars and which had a par value of nearly $300,000.

The assortment brought $6,257 on the block. The old coupon notes of a real estate corporation, with a face value of $136,000, brought only $50.

The significance of the difference in values lies largely in the fictitious nature of the original face values but the tragedy of the case is that innocent men and women, unaware of the great gamble underway, put money into similar instruments, not worth the paper upon which they were inscribed.

No wonder there is resentment in this country and a bitter feeling towards those who led the mad procession. Naturally, those who suffered are anxious for steps to be taken to prevent a repetition of the disaster.

Another Birthday Ball.

Announcement that another Birthday Ball for the President will be organized in January for the purpose of raising funds to combat infantile paralysis includes a statement that the money will be divided into two funds.

Seventy per cent of the total will be used directly in the communities to provide care and treatment for those suffering from this disease and thirty per cent will be used to intensify medical research to develop preventatives of and immunization against scourge.

While it is a little early to begin talking about the effort we feel sure that the American people will give liberally to this worthy cause.

What of Peace Pact?

Some five years ago the nations of the world, or at least some of the largest nations, through their accredited representatives at Washington, signed the Kellogg peace pact.

The general idea was that there would be no more war, which was, as we recall, denounced as an instrument of national policy by the various nations. Mr. Kellogg, our Secretary of State, received the Nobel peace prize in recognition of his great accomplishment.

Now, the great nations are bending every endeavor to build larger navies, provide stronger armies, more airplanes and devise other means of efficient slaughter. The hysteria covers the globe and war "fevers" afflict the earth.

Meanwhile, let us wonder what has become of the peace pact? Is it only a piece of paper?

THISTLES FOR FEED

DEPOSITS INSURED

There were 49,800,000 fully insured bank deposits in the United States on October 1st. The smaller group, one and a half per cent of the total of all depositors, held title to two-thirds of all bank deposits.

"Pains Gone," Says Lady, After She Had Taken CARDUI

In describing how her health improved after she had taken Cardui, Mrs. Ralph R. Courtney, of Wytheville, Va., said: "I was run-down and suffered from pain in my side. I wanted to feel well and get rid of the pain in my side, so I sent for Cardui and began taking it. By the time I had taken three bottles of Cardui, I was feeling much better. The pains had gone. I am very glad to recommend Cardui to other young women." . . . Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. $1 a bottle, at drug stores.

Big Timber Wolf Is Killed Near Minerva By Grover Lucas

Grover Lucas was in Rockdale yesterday with the carcass of a big gray timber wolf which he had just killed on the Sanders place west of Minerva. This wolf had been killing chickens and turkeys in that neighborhood for some time.

Wednesday morning Grover found two more turkeys missing, so he got Ernest Jacobs with his dogs and the hunt started. The wolf was jumped about nine o'clock and the chase lasted until noon, when Lucas got a fair shot and killed him.

The wolf was a magnificent specimen and Lucas said he would have the skin mounted.—Rockdale Reporter.

Louisa's Letter

Long Engagements Inadvisable

A great many letters come from readers about long engagements, so I shall try to answer them all at one time.

There are times and circumstances which make a long engagement necessary. It is certainly foolish for two young people who make just enough money to live comfortably with their own people but who could not possibly stretch it out to support a home, to get married. They are only asking for trouble and love has to be very courageous to battle with poverty and hardships from the very beginning of marriage. In such a case, I say stay engaged by all means, until you can see your way clear to at least support yourselves.

Another case where I approve of long engagements is where the girl and boy are very young. They are not ready to settle down to the important business of making a home or rearing a family. Their education is not complete in many ways. If they postpone matrimony, they will possibly fall in love a number of times before they find the man or woman whom they will really love all of their lives. It is a rare thing indeed to admire the same kind of man at twenty-five that we do at seventeen and many of the bored married men and women of today are those whose partners have failed to grow a mental inch since their high school days.

But if you are old enough to get married and are making enough money to live simply, for goodness sake, go on and get married. It is especially unfair to a young woman to stay engaged for years. She gets to the place where she is neither "fish nor fowl, nor good red herring." All of her friends are married and she is not of the married set, the single set is composed of younger girls and boys and the worst of all, everybody seems to regard her as a certain young man's property and if he is not on hand for every occasion she is left to twiddle her thumbs. A long engagement seems to take the bloom off marriage to a certain extent. The man and woman begin to take each other for granted.

A great deal of money is not necessary to successful marriage. The happiest couples are those who start with a fair income, love, faith in each other and the will to work together.

So I say to those couples who ask about long engagements, don't stay engaged too long if you are sure you have found the right man or woman; that is, unless you are very young or too poor to be comfortable.

Yours,
LOUISA.

Burn Lights Urged To Prevent Crime Says Power Co.

Dallas, Texas, December 12.—As a means of crime prevention, citizens are warned they should leave a light burning inside their home when they leave for a few hours at night, rather than leave only the porch light burning, Police Captain Norman D. Bailey, Dallas, newly appointed public relations officer of the department, said.

"Turning out all lights except the porch light is almost as good as telling the burglar that the occupants are absent," Captain Bailey said. "It's all right to leave the porch light on, but at least one small globe should be left lighted inside. Then the burglar can't tell from the outside whether some one is up in the house or not. Usually he'll play safe on the presumption there is someone in the house and up and go to a house where all inside lights are dark."

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Green, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Woods visited friends in Austin Sunday.
